

Scholarship Announcement

The Leibniz Institute of European History (IEG) awards

Research fellowships for international PhD students for a research stay in Mainz beginning in January 2017 or later.

IEG

Leibniz-Institut für
Europäische Geschichte

The IEG awards fellowships for international junior researchers in history, theology and other historical subjects. The IEG promotes research on the historical foundations of Europe from the early modern period to the 20th century, particularly regarding their religious, political and social dimensions. Projects dealing with European communication and transfer processes as well as projects focusing on questions related to theology, church history and intellectual history are particularly welcome.

What we offer

Funding is currently € 1200/month. Research fellows live and work for between 6 and 12 months at the Institute in Mainz and can pursue their individual PhD project. Fellows live and work at the Institute and are advised by a mentor from among the IEG's academic staff.

Requirements

PhD theses continue to be supervised and are completed under the auspices of the fellows' home universities. Fellows are required to register officially as residents in Mainz and to reside and take part in events at the Institute. They should have a sufficient command of German in order to participate in discussions at the Institute.
