Guest Lecture

German Orientalism - The Formation of a Discipline

Dr. Ursula Wokoeck

Rothberg International School, the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel

Dr. Ursula Wokoeck is a lecturer at the Rothberg International School in Jerusalem. Her research deals with the development of Oriental Studies. In her lecture, Wokoeck will give a valuable insight into how the discipline evolved in the context of the development of universities in general and in the field of philosophy in particular. She aims at discerning the reasons for faculties employing scholars who specialize in Oriental Studies. Hence, the question in which way these terms of employment have influenced the development of Oriental Studies will be analyzed.
